

Goal

- To promote and coordinate the scientific research in the field of the protection against fire realised in the laboratories of Ghent and Liège.
- Distribution of the acquired scientific knowledge in the field of fire safety.
- To deliver advice and provide technical assistance concerning passive fire safety.
- To contribute to the fire technical quality and properties of construction products and their application.

Activities

- Technical assessments:
 - Interpretation of test and classification reports in the field of passive fire safety.
 - Interpretation and examination of foreign reports.
 - Evaluation of the fire resistance of construction elements incorporated in a building.
 - ISIB does not offer the interpretation of the law, this belongs to the authority of the fire services.
- Certification of installers of fire-resistant doors (accredited by BELAC in accordance with the criteria of NBN EN ISO/IEC 17024) and other elements of passive fire safety.
- Technical secretariat for the technical approvals Benor/Atg of fire-resistant doors for the Technical Certification Committee 1 (TCC 1) of ANPI-BOSEC.
- To advise the authorities.

More information: www.isibfire.be